Reference: Letter dated 11 August 1965 requesting clearance for presentation.

The change detector referred to in your letter of 11 August 1965 is a classified item purchased under a classified contract. The classification of this contract is based on the necessity to avoid public knowledge of the Agency's interest in specific change detection devices rather than on the classification of the subject; therefore, a picture of it cannot be exhibited or reference to it presented to a group of persons without first establishing their need to know and obtaining appropriate security clearances.
